

Broadcasters are required by law to serve the public interest.

Sinclair broadcasting's decision to air a one-sided programs, like "Stolen Honor", does not serve the public interest, but the narrow, partisan interests of it's owners.

Thank you,

Tomas Christensen